#2! Here I am again. - I'm so full of things to tell I can't seem to stop, yet I don't want to take time out to write a regular letter. - I'm so much to do & catch up on I can't rest! - You just imagine. - Just like a year in the mountains in the States, with everything at your disposal for the eating. - Only we don't pay a cent! - Again and again I find myself being in the Air Corps as a pilot! - I'm sure when I'm back in the States, I wonder, but when I compare what we go thru and what the ground force go thru, - and these little things we get like this - why then just isn't any comparison!

Our schedule is our own - meals being served at set times, but nice times. - Breakfast 8:30 - dinner 1:00, and supper at 7:00. - I'm sure I'll be gaining the people to clean up after us and all! - Since I'll be gaining back some weight. - I weighed last night when I got here - 165, with clothes on! - Just before I left the states I weighed 174, stuffed I knew I had lost some - but I feel good, and I've been losing it in places where I had it to lose, to wit: - my waste & my arms. - I'm glad to lose it then tho, even if I have had to buy trousers 2 inches smaller in the waist - and now they need taking up! - I had too much "mummy".

We get to come to rest camp, even so often. - Depending on the individual and the place situation on our mental & health condition. And then, even there, a few who apparently show no wear or strain get their chance so the whole thing doesn't become too one-sided. - I'm glad I have my camera. - I don't believe I've ever enjoyed anything so much as I am now. - I'm glad I have my camera. - I don't believe I've ever enjoyed anything so much as I am now. - I'm glad I have my camera. - I don't believe I've ever enjoyed anything so much as I am now.
